1 Resurrection was preached in the same city without challenge.

“The resurrection proclamation could not have been maintained in Jerusalem for a single day, for a single hour, if the emptiness of the tomb had not been established as a fact for all concerned.”

2 Admission by the opposing Jews
on the empty tomb (Matt28:11-15)

11 Now while they were on their way, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all that had happened. 12 And when they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, 13 and said, "You are to say, 'His disciples came by night and stole Him away while we were asleep.'" 14 And if this should come to the governor's ears, we will win him over and keep you out of trouble." 15 And they took the money and did as they had been instructed; and this story was widely spread among the Jews, and is to this day.

"If a source admits a fact that is decidedly not in its favor, the fact is genuine."

3 Inclusion of Joseph of Arimathea
as the one who buried Christ.

Mk 15:43 Joseph of Arimathea came, a prominent member of the Council, who himself was waiting for the kingdom of God; and he gathered up courage and went in before Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

THE TRUE TREASURE OF LIFE
Philip Ng shares how Jesus Christ has brought true meaning to his life.

Some may know me as a property developer, but I am really a servant of the most high God whom I know through my Lord Jesus Christ. Property development is for me, just a way of making a living. Before I came to faith in God, I had always wanted to know Him, perhaps in an intellectual way. I did not realise that knowing God involved a relationship. So I searched as there was something missing in me.

In 2000, I attended the Alpha Course to find out more about Christianity, and that was where I got to know Jesus. Coming to faith was a struggle until one of my friends in the Alpha Course told me, "Believe so that you may understand and not understand so that you may believe." I dwelled on that and I believed. I knew then that life only had meaning in God and through God.

As I read the Bible, to me, the most stirring, piercing statement that Jesus made is in John 14:6: "I am the way and the truth and the life." This life is not just about the after-life, but our earthly one. When we come to see Jesus and accept Him as our Lord and Saviour, our life begins anew. We have a new life and we are renewed as people. It is for me also a journey of transformation.

Fourteen years into this journey, I have learned much from Jesus. Let me make reference to this wonderful truth in Matthew 6:20-24:

"But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also... No one can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money."

These are stirring words. I am in business and business is about money. But money and possessions can possess us. How then do I serve God as a business person? The way to do this is to realise that business is about God. God has entrusted money to me to be managed responsibly. At the end of the day, we have to contend with building treasures on earth, where moth and rust do destroy. As a businessman, I also have to guard against covetousness. If you have much, you will worry because you do not know what can happen; markets can go any property and stocks and share prices can change suddenly. So you see the wisdom of Jesus telling us to store up treasures in heaven.

In this world, we trade in the currency of money. But the currency in the kingdom of God is love.

How do we make that conversion from the currency of money to that of love? Jesus will teach us how. Guided by Jesus' teaching, I tell my people in the organisation that we want to do good business and do good in business. This is my call to them. My values in life and business are informed by my Christian faith, but we welcome and certainly include those from other faiths. We hope that our message of love can truly find a place in their hearts.

I count myself so blessed to have had this journey of transformation. I know this transformation must always start with oneself in Christ; the old self must die with the Lord and be resurrected as new. I have aspirations to serve God and share His message of truth. It now behoves me to be a light for my family and my organisation.

What is the difference between the time that I did not know Christ and now? Situations are the same, in a sense, there continues to be turmoil in the world. We continue to be faced with problems and are vulnerable to temptations. What has changed is that there is only one certainty now: my certainty of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ – without whom life would have no meaning.

3. Present Fact.

Resurrection made His promises and claims still real today.

Since it is Good Friday, we bring you this testimony of 'resurrection' by Suzanne Chin. Ms Chin, a lawyer, is convinced that what happened to her in 2009 is nothing but a miracle. The mother of two suffered a heart-attack while she was living and working in Hong Kong. In hospital she went into a coma and was declared brain dead. The doctors advised her husband to take her off life support. But he did not. Then, three days after she was admitted, she woke up from her coma. She recovered within a week and left the hospital.

According to publicly available information, Ms Chin is now living in Singapore, still working as a lawyer, still a wife and mum. She is well, and she is alive.
