

LIFE IMPACTING LIVES

Mentoring Relationships

(i) Biblical Basis of a Mentoring Relationship [MR]

(ii) What is a Mentoring Relationship?

It is a relationship whereby one person i.e. the mentor INVEST a part of his life to I_____ and I_____ another life.

This mentoring has the aim of the mentoree becoming / maturing as a D_____ of C_____.

(iii) The Mentor - Discipler

Range of Mentoring Relationships – Tim Elmore

1. The _____

2. The _____

3. The _____

4. The _____

5. The _____

6. The _____

7. The _____

(iv) The Mentoree

- a. The mentoree is someone who will P_____ himself / herself to L_____ and to R_____ from the mentor, inputs into areas of his life and ministry.
- b. A mentoree may have different mentors for different N_____ of his life.

(v) The MR Meeting Agenda

Three broad agendas :-

- (1) Sharing of L_____ and dealing with I_____ of L_____.
- (2) Who am I B_____? Our Journey in D_____.
- (3) Am I fulfilling God's C_____ and P_____ for my life?
Our Journey in _____.

The entire process must be Rooted in the W_____ and led by the H_____ S_____.

(vi) The MR Commitment

CONCLUSION - 2 Timothy 4:6 - 7