

Rebellion of Korah

INTRODUCTION

Numbers 16:1-3, 30-33, 35

Jude 1:11

Incident in Numbers 16

Exodus 6:21

Genesis 49:3-4

Number 16:3; 3:10; 4:4, 17-19; 16:42

Leviticus 10:1-2

1. God A_____ has absolute authority. Matthew 28:18

2A. There is no authority except from G_____.

2B. G_____ has set up 4 Authority Structures over our lives:

A. G_____ Romans 13:1-7

B. E_____ - B_____ Ephesians 6:5-8; Colossians 3:22-24

C. In the H_____ 1 Corinthians 11:3; Ephesians 6:1-3

D. In the C_____ Hebrews 13:17; 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13

3A. We are to S_____ to authority over us at all times.

3B. When we rebel against the A_____ God placed over us, we rebel against G_____
Himself. Numbers 16:11 Romans 13:2

3C. The only time we do not submit is when the authority requires us to B_____ the Law of God. Acts 5:29

- 4A. The spirit of rebellion is the spirit of A_____ -C_____. Isaiah 14:12-14
- 4B. Rebellion is not just outward behaviour, it is an A_____ problem, a H_____ issue.
- 4C. Rebellion is likened to W_____. 1 Samuel 15:23
- 5A. The spirit of anti-Christ is in the world and manifests as L_____.
- 5B. Lawlessness i.e. the spirit of rebellion is C_____.
- 5C. When we fail to H_____ authority, we are guilty of lawlessness.
- 5D. Rebellion brings C_____ upon us. Romans 13:1-2
6. God will always vindicate His chosen one whom He placed in authority.
 Number 16:30-33, 35 Isaiah 54:17
7. There is always hope and blessing for those who L_____ from the rebellion of Korah.
 Jude 1:11 Numbers 26:10-11 Psalm 84:10 1 Chronicles 9:19

BOTTOM-LINE

1. R_____ of the spirit of rebellion.
2. A_____ the Spirit of Humility and Submission.