Overview of Jude : Contend for our faith

V22-25 Ultimate Comfort

22 And have mercy on some, who are doubting;

23 save others, snatching them out of the fire; and on some have mercy with fear, hating even the garment polluted by the flesh.

24 Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to make you stand in the presence of His glory blameless with great joy, 25 to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.

The consolation and reassurance of those who are in distress, anxiety or need. Such comfort is an essential aspect of human relationships. Scripture declares that God comforts his people in times of distress.

Compassion with Wisdom

Advice from Counselling Pastor:

Prior to every contact, practitioners must pray for protection under the blood of our Lord Jesus from spiritual attacks and demonic interferences (in some cases) and wisdom to sieve and discern what information is necessary for the ministry and what is not.

All information and details are meant to facilitate the healing and restoration but not meant for personal consumption beyond the session. These are especially so when the information are of a sexual nature or even pertains to vices.

There must be cleansing immediately from defilement, transference and attachments post session. Practitioners must release themselves and dis-engage from the session otherwise staying on will bring attachment issues and subsequently the risks of transference.

When I put my life in my hands, it's pain and problems. When I put my life in God's hands, it's power and possibilities.

That's the way it is with God. What we can accomplish on our own is hardly noteworthy. However, with the hand of the Master, our life's work can truly be beautiful.
