“I HAVE SEEN
THE LORD!”
HAVE YOU?

A dramatic scene of a tomb at sunrise. The sky is filled with vibrant orange and red clouds. In the foreground, a stone tomb is shown with a large, round stone rolled away from its entrance. A bright light emanates from the opening of the tomb. In the background, a dark silhouette of a hill features three crosses standing on top. The overall atmosphere is one of hope and resurrection.

- 1. Comfort our Hearts
- 2. Calm our Fears
- 3. Clear our Doubts

A person is seen from behind, standing in shallow water that reflects the golden light of a setting or rising sun. The sun is positioned in the upper center of the frame, creating a bright starburst effect with rays of light extending across the sky. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds. The water in the foreground shows gentle ripples and a clear reflection of the person and the sun. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

JOHN 20

John 20:1–10

¹ Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. ² So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” ³ So Peter went out with the other disciple, and they were going toward the tomb. ⁴ Both of them were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. ⁵ And stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. ⁶ Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, ⁷ and the face cloth, which had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself. ⁸ Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed. ⁹ for as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. ¹⁰ Then the disciples went back to their homes.

John 20:1–10

1. COMFORT OUR HEARTS

John 20:11–18

¹¹ But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. ¹² And she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. ¹³ They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” ¹⁴ Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. ¹⁵ Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” ¹⁶ Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned and said to him in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means Teacher). ¹⁷ Jesus said to her, “Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” ¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”—and that he had said these things to her.

Are you hurting
today?

...why are you
weeping?

2. CALM OUR FEARS

John 20:19–23

¹⁹ On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” ²⁰ When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. ²¹ Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you.” ²² And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you withhold forgiveness from any, it is withheld.”

John 20:19–23

¹⁹ On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” ²⁰ When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. ²¹ Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you.” ²² And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.” ²³ If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you withhold forgiveness from any, it is withheld.”

Then the LORD God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature.

Genesis 2:7

John 20:19–23

A person is seen from behind, standing in a vast, green field. The sky is filled with dark, heavy clouds, but a bright, golden light from the setting or rising sun breaks through on the horizon, creating a dramatic contrast. The overall mood is contemplative and serene, despite the dark clouds.

No God, no peace.
Know God, know peace.

Do you have peace?

Will you give your fears
to the Lord today?

3. CLEAR OUR DOUBTS

John 20:24–29

²⁴ Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe.”

²⁶ Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” ²⁷ Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe.” ²⁸ Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” ²⁹ Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.

John 20:24–29

²⁴ Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe.”

John 20:30–31

³⁰ Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book;
³¹ but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

He lives, He lives
Christ Jesus lives today
He walks with me and talks with me
Along life's narrow way
He lives, He lives
Salvation to impart

“I HAVE SEEN THE LORD!”
HAVE YOU?

A close-up, warm-toned photograph of several people's hands clasped together in prayer. The hands are arranged in a circle, with some in sharp focus and others blurred in the background. The lighting is soft and golden, creating a peaceful atmosphere. The text "Let's Pray" is centered over the image in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

Let's Pray

Dear Lord Jesus,

I know that I have sinned against You.

I am so sorry for the things I have done wrong. Please forgive me.

I believe You died for my sins and rose from the dead.

I now turn from my sins and invite You to come into my life to be my Lord and Saviour.

In Jesus Name, amen.
