Vision Revisited

1. Why do we need a vision?
It gives meaning and purpose.

2. Where do we receive our vision?
Not from Man's wisdom, but from the Word of God.

Jesus' Model of Disciple-Making

To model well, we must first practise what we preach, lest we disqualify ourselves in what we say (1 Cor 9:27).

but I discipline my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

Jesus everything I count as loss
To know you and be known as yours
To share with you in your suffering
To be with you in glory
X 2

Come and be my exceedingly great reward
You're the treasure that I would give my whole life for
What would it profit me to gain the world but lose my soul?
I know my life is not my own

Jesus let my days be lived for you
The vapor of this life be given too
Set this heart toward eternity
To be with you in glory

Come and be my exceedingly great reward
You're the treasure that I would give my whole life for
What would it profit me to gain the world but lose my soul?
I know my life is not my own
X 2

I have decided to follow Jesus
No turning back, no turning back
The cross before me, the world behind me
No turning back, no turning back

Though none go with me still I will follow
No turning back, no turning back
My cross I'll carry 'til I see Jesus
No turning back, no turning back

Come and be my exceedingly great reward
You're the treasure that I would give my whole life for
What would it profit me to gain the world but lose my soul?
I know my life is not my own
