From: Anon

I responded at the altar to pray for someone this week. A friend I hadn't been in contact with for a long time came to mind. Sure enough, that week, our paths crossed. We had a good chat, and I asked her, "Can I pray for you?"

She said yes! I prayed for her and invited her to come to church, and she said yes. She came and said that she would come again!

My company had a Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) event to visit 60 seniors.

I chatted with an 86 year old man. He is not very mobile and told me that his shoulder was painful.

Immediately, I asked him, “Can I pray for you?”

He said yes.

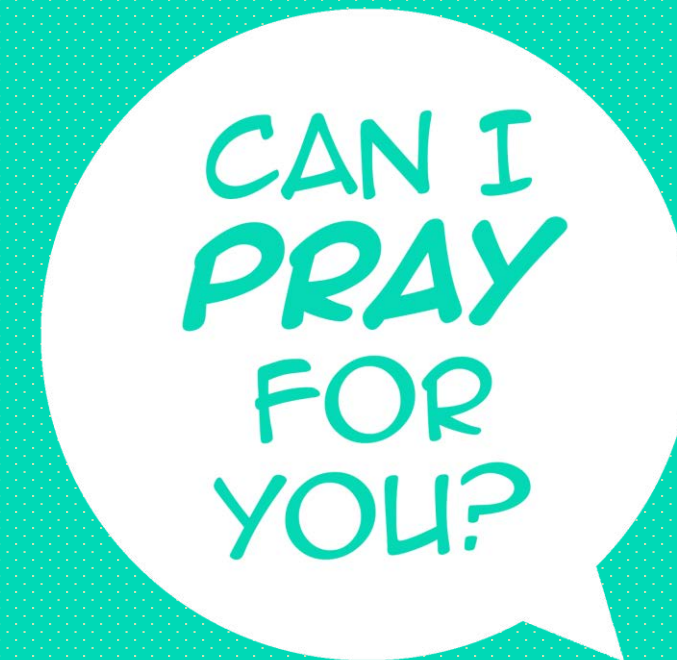

So, I prayed for him. Before leaving, my CEO asked me, what was I doing. I told her that I prayed for the man. She said this was very good.

My neighbour is partially blind. We have been neighbours for years, but we don't talk much.

Recently, I saw him but did not pray for him.

I asked God for another opportunity. Soon after, I saw him near my place.

I asked him,

“Can I pray for you?”

He agreed, and I prayed. Then I asked him if he would like to come to church with me one day, and he said, Okay.

I was helping someone who needed help to cross the overhead bridge. While doing so, I found out that she had a swollen right foot. So, I took the chance to ask her, “Can I pray for you?”

She said yes. I did. And God healed her!

There was no more swell! She said she felt that something left her. So, I shared the Gospel with her and she prayed to receive Jesus into her heart.

Prayed for one pre-believer and she accepted Christ as her Lord and Saviour!

And then she brought both parents to be prayed for for healing. And both received healing and both accepted Christ as Lord and Saviour too!
