

A new year's feast

Israel was told to hold a feast in “the first month of your year”

EXODUS 12

1 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 “This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year.”

EXODUS 12

1 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 “This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year.

What are AD and BC?

AD stands for Anno Domini, which is Latin for in the year of the Lord. It's a way of counting years based on the estimated birth of Jesus Christ. BC stands for Before Christ, and it's a way of counting years before the estimated birth of Jesus Christ.

AD starts with year 1 and continues to the present day. BC starts with the year before Christ's birth, 1 BC, and counts backward to the year 10,000 BC.

The use of AD and BC dates back to the sixth century, and they were introduced by a monk named Dionysius Exiguus. He wanted to create a system of dating based on the birth of Jesus Christ. Today, AD and BC are used to label the years on the Gregorian calendar, which is the most widely used calendar in the world. The Gregorian calendar is a solar calendar that Pope Gregory XIII introduced in 1582.

EXODUS 12

1 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 “This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year.

“THE FIRST MONTH OF THE YEAR” IN 2024 DEPENDS ON WHAT CALENDAR YOU USE:

Gregorian	January 1
Lunar/Chinese	February 10
Biblical	April 22 (Pesach/Passover)
Modern Jewish	October 2 (Rosh Hoshana)

EXODUS 12

- 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb for his family, one for each household.
- 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbour, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat.
- 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats.
- 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight.

3. GOD GAVE JESUS - WE MUST STILL RECEIVE THE GIFT

In John 6:48-58, Jesus uses the metaphor of being the bread of life, which one needs to “eat” to receive life.

“I am the bread of life. Here is the bread that comes down from heaven, which anyone may eat and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.”

GOD IS NOT SAYING ...

- That evangelism is easy
- That it is natural for everyone
- That we will always succeed

BUT GOD IS SAYING ...

- We should do it anyway
- To do it together as one
- And He will help us do it!

From: Anonymous

While buying some pineapple tarts at Bedok, I was moved to ask the store assistant: “Can I pray for you?”

She politely replied no and said she was busy. I told her never mind then! I didn't expect such a polite reply from her.

I was also encouraged that the Lord gave me courage to approach her.

I saw an old uncle, the owner of a stall in a market, whose wrist was wrapped up and he looked in pain.

I talked to him first and then asked:

“Can I pray for you?”

He refused.

But I will continue to check up on him and ask again!

From: Nicolette

We approached a mother-daughter pair who was selling newspapers at Tampines Interchange. Ginelle then told the daughter that whenever she runs into difficulties, she can always pray and call out to God.

I tried to give her the hongbao and asked, “Can I pray for you?”

... But she rejected ... including the money. 🙄

But it's okay. We choose to believe that a seed was sown and we pray that if she meets with difficulties, she will try praying :)”

From: Ginelle

A few weeks ago I was at Tampines and was prompted by the Holy Spirit to talk to this man. It was a conversation where we just openly talked and the Gospel was shared, but he was in a rush so I didn't get the chance to pray for him.

... But today when we were at Tampines Interchange, I saw him again. His back was facing me and I didn't know it was him. He suddenly stood up and started walking towards me, and he recognised me! We talked and as we asked to pray for him, he was visibly touched and smiled.

EXODUS 12

- 7 Then they are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs.
- 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast.
- 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire — with the head, legs and internal organs.
- 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it.
- 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the Lord's Passover.

Maimonides ^{F1} is a little more particular and exact in his account; to the question, how do they roast it? he replies,

``they transfix it through the middle of the mouth to its posteriors, with a wooden spit, and they hang it in the midst of a furnace, and the fire below:"

so that it was not turned upon a spit, according to our manner of roasting, but was suspended on a hook, and roasted by the fire underneath, and so was a more exact figure of Christ suspended on the cross, and enduring the fire of divine wrath. And Justin Martyr ^{F2} is still more particular, who was by birth a Samaritan, and was well versed in Jewish affairs; he, even in conversing with Trypho the Jew, who could have contradicted him had he said what was wrong, says, the lamb was roasted in the form of a cross; one spit, he says, went through from the lower parts to the head, and again another across the shoulders, to which the hands (or rather the legs) of the lamb were fastened and hung; and so was a very lively emblem of Christ crucified:

his head, with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof;

or with its inwards ^{F3}, these were all to be roasted together, the whole lamb with all that belonged to it, with which the above canon of the Jews agrees.

The Passover Lamb is

A FEAST WORTH REMEMBERING

FROM THE TIME OF MOSES ...

EXO 40:1-2, 34 Then the Lord said to Moses: “Set up the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, on the first day of the first month.” Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle.

DEUT 16:1-3 Observe the month of Aviv (the first month) and celebrate the Passover of the Lord your God, because in this month he brought you out of Egypt by night ... so that all the days of your life you may remember the time of your departure from Egypt.

EXODUS 12

12 “On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the Lord.

13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord — a lasting ordinance.”

The Passover Lamb is

A FEAST WORTH REMEMBERING

... TO THE TIME OF THE KINGS ...

2 CHRON 30:25-27 (KING HEZEKIAH – 700BC?) The Israelites present in Jerusalem celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread with great rejoicing ... The priests and the Levites stood to bless the people, and God heard them, for their prayer reached heaven, his holy dwelling place.

2 CHRON 35:18 (KING JOSIAH – 630BC?) The entire service of the Lord was carried out for the celebration of the Passover. It had not been observed like this in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel; and none of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated such a Passover as did Josiah.

EXODUS 12

12 “On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the Lord.

13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord — a lasting ordinance.”

The Passover Lamb is

A FEAST WORTH REMEMBERING

... TO THE TIME OF THE EXILE ...

EZRA 6:19-22 (KING DARIUS – 450BC?)

On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles celebrated the Passover ... The Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their relatives the priests and for themselves ...

For seven days they celebrated with joy the Festival of Unleavened Bread, because the Lord had filled them with joy by changing the attitude of the king of Assyria so that he assisted them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

EXODUS 12

12 “On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the Lord.

14 This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord — a lasting ordinance.”

The Passover Lamb is

... TO THE TIME OF JESUS AND THE APOSTLES ...

JOHN 2:13, 23 When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, Jesus went up to Jerusalem ... Now while He was in Jerusalem at the Passover Festival, many people saw the signs He was performing and believed in His name.

LUKE 22:7-8 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover.”

EXODUS 12
