Matthew 14

13 Now when Jesus heard this, He withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by Himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed Him on foot from the towns.

14 When He went ashore He saw a great crowd, and He had compassion on them and healed their sick.

15 Now when it was evening, the disciples came to Him and said, “This is a desolate place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

Matthew 14

16 But Jesus said, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.”

17 They said to Him, “We have only five loaves here and two fish.”

18 And He said, “Bring them here to Me.”

19 Then He ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass, and taking the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven and said a blessing. Then He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

Matthew 14

20 And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over.

21 And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

15 Now when it was evening, the disciples came to Him and said, “This is a desolate place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” 16 But Jesus said, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.”

A scenic view of a mountain ridge. The foreground is dominated by tall, green grasses on the left side, which appear to be blowing in the wind. The ridge itself is dark and silhouetted against the sky. In the background, a vast range of mountains stretches across the horizon, with each successive range becoming progressively more hazy and blue-toned, creating a sense of depth and distance. The sky is a pale, hazy blue, suggesting a clear but slightly overcast day.

John 6

5 When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming toward him, He said to Philip, “Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?” 6 He asked this only to test him, for He already had in mind what He was going to do.

John 6

7 Philip answered him, “It would take more than half a year’s wages to buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!”

8 Another of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, spoke up, 9 “Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?”

2 Corinthians 9

8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work.

2 Corinthians 9

6 The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

7 Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

2 Corinthians 9

9 As it is written,

“He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever.”

10 He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. 11 You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God.

Dear Lord Jesus,
I know that I have sinned against You.
I am so sorry for the things I have done wrong to others and to You. Please forgive me.
I believe You died for my sins and rose from the dead.
I now turn from my sins and invite You to come into my heart and life. I want to trust and follow You as my Lord and Saviour.
In Jesus Name, amen.
